Interjection

An Interjection is a word or phrase that expresses emotions like happiness, grief, desperation etc. Usually an interjection is followed by an exclamation mark and is not grammatically related to any other part of sentence.

Examples:

Hey! Why don't you come and meet me today?

Hurrah! I won the match.

The highlighted words in the following sentences are interjections:

- Ouch, that hurt!
- Oh no, I forgot that the exam was today.
- Hey! Put that down!
- I heard one guy say to another guy, "He has a new car, eh?"
- I don't know about you but, good lord, I think taxes are too high!
